

Dr. Domagoj Perković

Dr. Domagoj Perković is an orthopedic surgeon with special interest in F&A surgery.

He has been performing F&A surgery for the past 10 years in Special orthopedic hospitals "Dr. Nemec" and Arithera in Croatia.

Besides clinical work, he is regularly attending congresses and workshops dedicated to F&A surgery, giving lectures and participating in scientific work and education. He is currently a treasurer of the BAFAS society.

Surgical interest in HV and forefoot surgery, complex cavus and PCFD surgery, ankle arthroscopies and stabilisations.